Final-round quotes:

INTERVIEW OF BRYCE MOLDER

Q – Struggling out there today, not at your physical best?

BRYCE MOLDER – I wish that were a valid excuse, but the truth is that I didn't hit my irons as sharp today, I drove the ball straight.

It was hot, that's what made it tough. It really took the energy out of you. I gained a little energy when we went back for the re-start, but things felt different. But it didn't feel very good. It is what it is.

Q – How will this finish help you during the rest of the season?

BRYCE MOLDER – You certainly learn. That's the closest I've been to winning, really having a chance with a few holes left. Three, four, five holes left, if I make a couple of birdies I could have been right there. But, you learn a lot. Zach put the pedal down and he really kept going. That's what you have to be able to do.
