AN INTERVIEW WITH CARRI WOOD

(Interview by tape)

Q. You probably feel pretty good about finishing 8-under, right?

CARRI WOOD: Yes, I'm excited. It's my best finish now. My first Top Ten ever out here. I 2-putted the last hole. I made some birdies coming down the stretch that I didn't expect to make. I would have liked to par the last hole. I don't want to look at the standings when it comes tomorrow, you know.

Q. (Inaudible)?

CARRI WOOD: Get through the rounds and just try get it in. I was pretty nervous. It was probably as nerve-racking as the final round at Q School.

Q. This past year?

CARRI WOOD: Yes, in December. Q School can screw up the whole year. This can just be a real tournament.

Q. This week has been really good to you. You have started off, you qualified for the Women's British Open, and now you've got your career best finish. How does this week rank compared to all your weeks on tour?

CARRI WOOD: Well, it's my best, actually. I'm secure in keeping my tour card, which would be a nice bonus. So I don't have to go back to qualifying school anymore, but it's just been a lot of fun. It's been a nice week. It's been worth while, getting into the British and being in the Top Ten here.

Q. Comparing the four days, what was your best day? Today? Did you feel like you were climbing up there pretty good today?

CARRI WOOD: I think today was probably the best only because the pressure you have in the final round and everybody watching.
