Third-round quotes:

INTERVIEW OF HEE YOUNG PARK

(Interview by tape.)

Q. (Inaudible)?

HEE YOUNG PARK: Today a little bit disappointing. The shot really not too controlling. But I'm still happy with it because they come back to even par today. Still chance one more day.

Q. On No. 9 you hit a bad one?

HEE YOUNG PARK: Yes, like when I set up, I normally think about the target, I set up, oh, it feels like bad swing more technique I thought. A miss shot. I don't care about it.

Q. A lot of people like me hit shots like that and we have to try to put it out of our head?

HEE YOUNG PARK: Right.

Q. How do you get it out of your head after a shot like that or do you even think about it again?

HEE YOUNG PARK: It happens, happens. But, you know, I can't control my mind. A lot of times, many times like getting, you know, worse shot, or something like that. But I can handle it. Just forget about it. Right after hit shot, just hit, just focus on the next shot.

Q. Right now the top of the leaderboard, Yani seems to be putting some distance?

HEE YOUNG PARK: I saw that, yes.

Q. Do you approach any different tomorrow knowing Yani has such a big lead?

HEE YOUNG PARK: You know, the golfers never don't know, so still I'm going to work hard tomorrow and then try to catch up out there.

Q. Good luck.

HEE YOUNG PARK: Thank you.
