AN INTERVIEW WITH IL MI CHUNG

Q. 65 you must be thrilled with that?

IL MI CHUNG: You know, I started with 66. 65, was a lot of putts. This is why I missed a couple of pars on the front side. But my caddy is new, he work for me. It's the first time here and he helped me a lot for play today.

Q. I'm sure you would like to have another 65 tomorrow?

IL MI CHUNG: Hopefully.

Q. Can you talk about tomorrow, 18 holes for a million dollars, how are you going to approach it?

IL MI CHUNG: My shot is so good this week, the past three days. (Inaudible). My swing, maybe tomorrow too.

Q. What was different between the last two days and today that took you from 70 to the 65 round?

IL MI CHUNG: It's more confidence and more confidence. The last couple of days when they cut 16 players. Today was top players 4 or 5-under, everybody is so good. I just keep trying to do my best.

Q. At what point did you feel like you could really go low today?

IL MI CHUNG: I don't know. Just try, my caddy and me together. I think I never met good caddy before. He is helping me a lot. Make me more comfortable.

Q. What is your caddy's name

IL MI CHUNG: Jason.

Q. Do you go into tomorrow trying to keep the same thing as today?

IL MI CHUNG: I had three or four putts I missed on the front 9, missed the birdie putt. If I could have made that, I play like 9 or 10-under today. I feel good right now.

Q. Save some of those birdies putts for tomorrow?

IL MI CHUNG: I will.
