Second-round tournament quotes

AN INTERVIEW WITH JULI INKSTER

Q. Talk about how you felt.

JULI INKSTER: No, I told my caddy I felt I was in a Saturday afternoon horse race at the club; everybody out there playing and eliminating one at a time. I survived. Now I got my work cut out for me tomorrow.

Q. Talk about the format, how do you feel about that?

JULI INKSTER: Yes, I'm okay with the playoff system. I think the points can be tweaked a little bit. It's different and people seem to like it. I'm not on he posed to that at all.

Q. The last three holes you knew where you were on the line?

JULI INKSTER: I kind of knew where I was. The back 9 all day. I birdied 15. It got me 1-over. I knew it was a plus or one. I couldn't get a birdie coming in. Those last few holes aren't easy. I figured don't do anything stupid, make par and take your chances in the playoff. Fortunately there were three spots open instead of one spot open.

Q. Even though you had four shots?

JULI INKSTER: I think if you give me that birdie I don't have -- you know, tomorrow, I've got to go out there, and I think I got to play aggressive tomorrow. I got a situation where I got to get on a roll early. Those first few holes have been killing he me..

Q. How was your week qualifying?

JULI INKSTER: I just think the points need to be distributed differently. I don't know why we have the first half, second half. I don't know why we just don't have all year long. Because, you know you got your first half, all of the players, your Lorenas, your Karries, Annikas, keep winning, winning, winning, you don't have to play great to get in there the second half. I think it should be an all year thing.

Q. How far was that putt?

JULI INKSTER: Probably 18 feet.

Q. There is a million dollars waiting there.

JULI INKSTER: I think a win is a win. The money is better, yes. But I just think that, you know, it's just starting over on Sunday is kind of weird, too. But, you know, if I get in tomorrow it will help me out.

Q. (Inaudible)?

JULI INKSTER: I think we it right, went out and play 5 coming in. Thank you.
