First-round leader quotes

AN INTERVIEW WITH JESSICA REESE-QUAYLE

(Interview by tape.)

Q. You had a good round, great day, got it going. How does it feel to get everything going?

JESSICA REESE-QUAYLE: It's nice. The last couple of weeks, the change with my golf game.

Q. Have you ever done anything like that?

JESSICA REESE-QUAYLE: Actually I felt like I was needing so much help with my game. It was falling a bit. Finally, I was like, I don't have a putter. I'm going to go putt, you know. Just letting myself play instead of really thinking about what's going on.

Q. How was the course?

JESSICA REESE-QUAYLE: It was fine. The fairways are firm, so are the greens, it didn't really affect me at all. Besides looking at this huge river going by, that's about it.

Q. So to get ready for tomorrow, what are you going to start focussing on?

JESSICA REESE-QUAYLE: I'm going hit some balls for sure because the last couple of holes I hit some shots I really didn't really like. I'm going to get the thing going into tomorrow, practice some putting, and that's it.
