Final-round Interviews

AN INTERVIEW WITH TIM CLARK

Q: Can you take anything positive from today?

TIM CLARK: No. I can't take anything positive from today, as I obviously from the last hole (of regulation) and the playoff, I have a lot of work to do when it comes to closing out golf tournaments.

Q: Talk about your bad break in the second playoff hole.

TIM CLARK: I saw how close Steve hit it (to the flagstick) and I knew I had to do something like that as well. Bad break or not, the tournament should have ended on the first playoff hole. I didn't make a confident stroke and I pulled it.
