Final-round quotes:

INTERVIEW OF YANI TSENG

(Interview by tape.)

Q. How were you in the elation of running away with this?

YANI TSENG: Yes, I feel very excited. I've been very patient all day. I had bogey on the first hole, but I tell myself it's only first hole I can get more birdie, get it back. I feel very appreciative of all of the fans here. I walk on 18 hole, I almost cry because so emotional and all of the fans were crying so bad. I'm from Taiwan. It's a little country and the people here are very, very supportive of me. I feel really good about that.

Q. The historical significance of this, four Majors at the age of 22, what does it mean to you?

YANI TSENG: It's pretty good. I just try to focus on every tournament. I don't think about too much. I still go and try to win the next Major.

Q. Talk about playing with a big lead and then being able to expand it and never really letting anybody get close to you today?

YANI TSENG: I was pretty. I keep telling myself I'm going to break a record. I'm probably going to break Cristie Kerr's record and try not to think about. I'm so far ahead. Let's have a goal to look at it.

Q. Is there anything one thing you can point to or a combination of things as to why you played so well this week?

YANI TSENG: I think I just focus on this golf course, give me lots of confidence too to hit good drive here, and then I think I probably hit 60 percent or 70 percent on drives, lots of birdie chances for me.

Q. 8 career wins, 4 of them Majors, did you ever envision a start like that to your career?

YANI TSENG: No, no, I never think about going to win Majors. This is fun. It's always very fun to win a Major. Like I say, I still have lots of goals to set it up and I am looking for another Major.
